Note (5)

(a) A reference to the Reports on Education in the Central Provinces Hyderabad Assigned Districts, Madras and Bombay Presidencies for the years 1895-96, & 1896-97 will show

(1) that these reports treat of the following main heads

I General and statistical summary
II Controlling agencies
III University or collegiate Education
IV Secondary Education
V Primary Education
VI Special Education
VII Female Education
VIII Education of special classes
IX Indigenous Education
X Books, scholarships etc & General remarks and (2) that these reports contain Tabular Statements which appearing in the the body of the report are only succinct and clear modes of expressing facts and figures, without which no General results or comments would be intelligible

(b) A Comparison of the Mysore report for 1896-97 with the reports of the four British Provinces mentioned above will bear out that the Mysore report (for 96-97) follows the same main heads and adopts the same or simpler tabular statements and that these two are not as numerous as in the other reports

(c) Mr Bhabha says in para 4 of his letter that "he is as anxious as Govt can be to condense the Annual Report and reduce it to as small a size as is consistent with the usual practice or its usefulness The few words relating to individual institutions or

3 " workers serve as a great " Stimulus to them Much of " the usefulness of an annual " Report Consists in its being a " permanent record of progress " which serves for reference in future years Bearing these facts in mind he has carefully gone through the Report for 96-97 and points out that the following portions may be omitted

(1) Para 117 on the Review and Analysis of Publications

(2) Paras 63 to 71 on Kannada
Primary schools

(3) Para 23 containing remarks on Chief Items of Increase in Expenditure,,

(4) Para 29 on ~~Deputation~~ Central Schools
Expenditure on school Buildings

(5) 80 to 82 on Industrial
schools

Mr Bhabha adds that in future reports he shall study brevity generally in the text of the report—though he considers it impracticable to lay down rule. L. I. C tabular statements which have been adopted after much thought and careful selection.

4

(d) Mr Bhabha's remarks in the concluding portion (Para 5) of his letter deserves notice

(e) ~~Later portion pointed out~~ Mr Bhabha may be requested to condense his report on

(1) Female Education in paras 85 to 98

(2) Hindustani schools in paras 101 to 108
